

EPL0146

Our “Clips to push-on one thickness” family has been designed to ensure secure and simple fastening over time. These parts are simply pressed in a hole (mostly round) in the supporting panel. Some of them can be used as plugs.

This family includes a complete range of products. They can be used for different panel thicknesses, different hole diameters, etc.

EPL0156

EPL0161

Our “Clips to push-on one thickness” family has been designed to ensure secure and simple fastening over time. These parts are simply pressed in a hole (mostly round) in the supporting panel. Some of them can be used as plugs.

This family includes a complete range of products. They can be used for different panel thicknesses, different hole diameters, etc.

EPL0173

F016

F109

F183

Our “Clips to push-on one thickness” family has been designed to ensure secure and simple fastening over time. These parts are simply pressed in a hole (mostly round) in the supporting panel. Some of them can be used as plugs.

This family includes a complete range of products. They can be used for different panel thicknesses, different hole diameters, etc.

F442

Our “Clips to push-on one thickness” family has been designed to ensure secure and simple fastening over time. These parts are simply pressed in a hole (mostly round) in the supporting panel. Some of them can be used as plugs.

This family includes a complete range of products. They can be used for different panel thicknesses, different hole diameters, etc.

KKP1055

KKP1438

KKP1869

MP8755

P0158

Our “Clips to push-on one thickness” family has been designed to ensure secure and simple fastening over time. These parts are simply pressed in a hole (mostly round) in the supporting panel. Some of them can be used as plugs.

This family includes a complete range of products. They can be used for different panel thicknesses, different hole diameters, etc.

P0162

P0169